

Snapshots from this week . . .

We will be marking the start of Anti-Bullying Week

By wearing odd socks on Monday 14 November to celebrate what makes us all unique! Come in your brightest and most unusual socks ... but make sure they are an odd pair!

staff news

Mrs Howard is excited to share the news that she is expecting a baby in late March. Y2 parents will receive additional information in due course.

Wear something yellow or spotty to support Children in Need on Friday, 18 November. Children may buy cakes at playtime. No further cake donations necessary, thank you

Attendance figures this week:

Reception - 92%
Year 1 - 98.1%	Year 4 - 95.6%
Year 2 - 93.5%	Year 5 - 95.5%
Year 3 - 97.9%	Year 6 - 98.5%

A reminder that the school day starts at 8.45am and children may arrive from 8.40am.

We have been busy each playtime this week selling poppies and merchandise. Thank you to all parents and children who supported the Poppy Appeal in aid of the Royal British Legion.

dates to Remember

- 14 November—Anti-Bullying Week, wear odd socks today.
- 18 November—Children in Need, wear something yellow or spotty. Cake sale at playtime
- 29 November—EYFS Stay and Play
- 7 December—KS2 Pantomime trip—Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs
- 12 December—Reception/KS1 Pantomime trip—Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs
- 15 and 16 December—EYFS/KS1 Nativity, tickets available soon
- 19 December—KS2 Panto Pandemonium production, tickets available soon
- 20 December—Class parties—non uniform.
- 21 December—Carols around the tree, end of term at 2pm—Christmas jumper to be worn.