

Sophie's second day in school.

It is Sophie's second day at her new school.

Yesterday, she went home sad. Let's see if she has a better day today.

The children are playing football.

Sophie isn't playing football. She's standing on her own.

The children are reading books.

Sophie isn't reading a book. She's watching the other children read books.

The boy is painting.

Sophie isn't painting.
She's watching the boy paint a picture.

The girl is playing.

Sophie isn't playing.
She wants to play
but is too shy.

The children are playing outside.

Sophie isn't playing. She's standing and watching the other children play.

The children are working in groups.

Sophie isn't working in a group. She is working by herself.

It is home time.

Sophie told her mum
about her second day
at her new school.

Mum told her not to worry. She could try and make some new friends again tomorrow.

The end.
